The Self-Aware Leader 2024 Virtual Development Program

THE FOCUS

Self-awareness is about slowing yourself down to speed yourself up. It's about being deeply attentive to your surroundings so you can be informed and intentional. It's about seeing details that create direction, drive work, and rally teams. Self-awareness is a game-changing leadership skill that accelerates productivity, engagement, and inclusion.

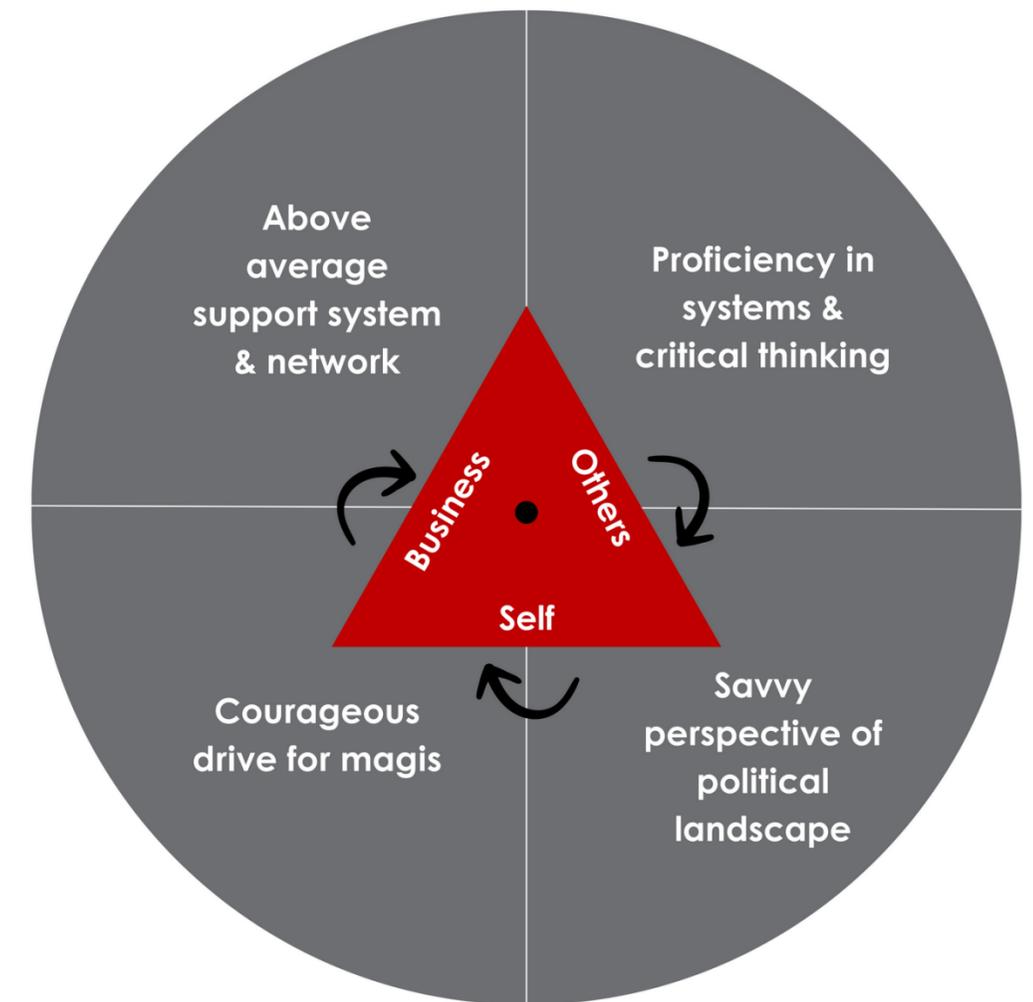

THE MODEL

The Self-Aware Leader model connects three reinventions to four validated behaviors. The reinventions focus leaders on what their next pivot is and why, and the four core behaviors focus on the activation and the how.

THE AUDIENCE

Participants are middle managers with a baseline understanding of and experience in core leadership practices as a manager of people and/or an individual contributor. The class size is capped at 28 participants. Seven full scholarships are offered to nonprofit organizations and/or diverse leaders.

THE DESIGN

This 6-month virtual experience is focused on the mindset and the behaviors of a self-aware leader. The focused, creative, and meaningful design centers on relevant learnings and practical applications. Participants will dedicate 3.5-4 hours of their time per month.

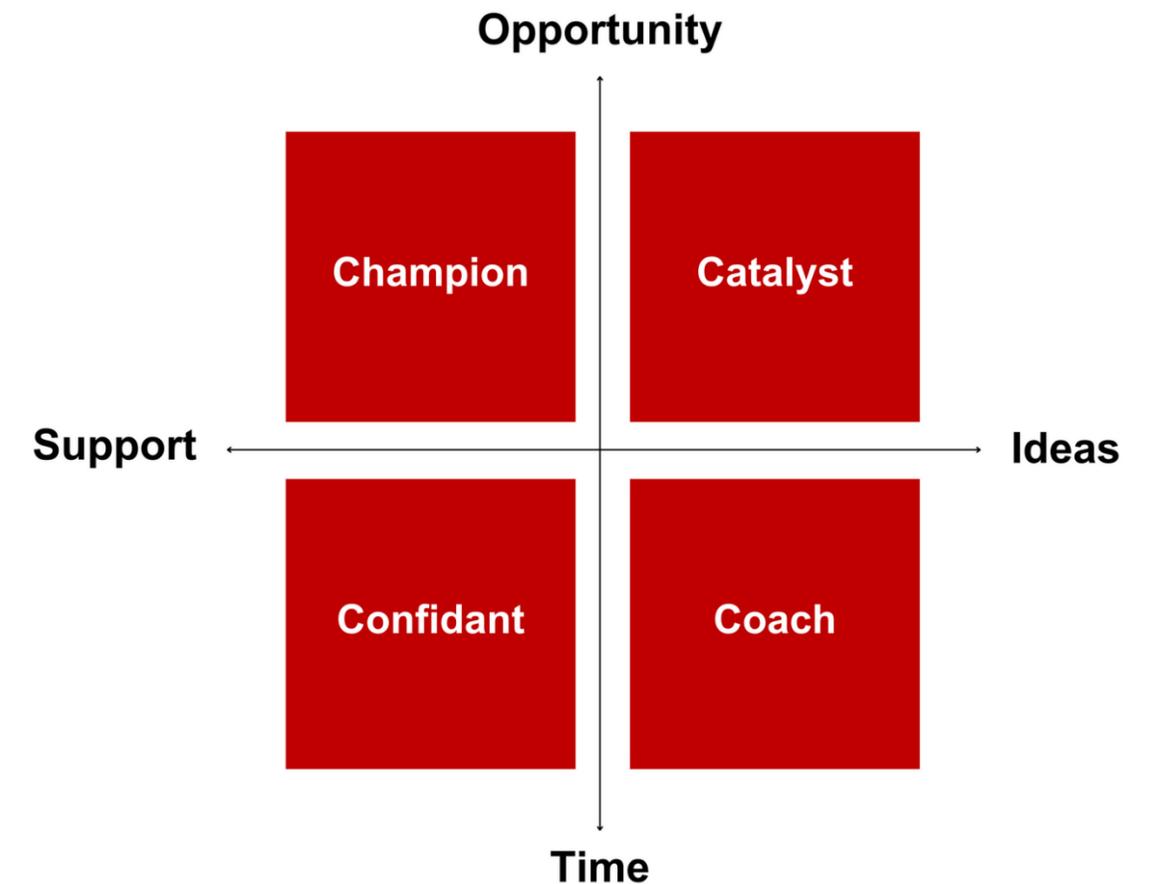

Design highlights include:

- Six live 2-hour modules for six months, each with a 20-minute primer video plus reflection exercises for pre- and post-work
- Facilitated coaching circles (~7 participants) for all breakout exercises, plus six 1-hour monthly group coaching sessions to process learning + application
- A 1-hour 1x1 coaching session with Dan at the end of the learning experience with an option for additional 1x1 coaching
- Copy of The Self-Aware Leader book included with registration to provide additional context and followup for each session
- An option to include your manager via communications about what is being learned and how they can support the application of learnings
- An option for a train-the-trainer program, content license, and custom in-house delivery

DATES + TIMES

- Modules: (M1) Jan. 25, (M2) Feb. 15, (M3) Mar. 7, (M4) Apr. 11, (M5) May 9, and (M6) Jun. 6, from 12-2 pm ET
